Leading the study, preservation, and celebration of the Connecticut River and its valley.

Connecticut River Museum
67 Main Street, Essex, CT
860-767-8269 | ctrivermuseum.org

Hours:
Closed Monday
Tuesday – Sunday
10AM – 5PM
First Floor: On The Great River

Dutch Explorer Adrian Block
Trading with Native Americans
The Turtle - The First Submarine
The Raid On Essex By The British American Revolutionary War

Second Floor: The River That Connects Us

Captains and their legacy
The importance of Shipbuilding
Natural Resources and Stone
The Power of Water
Transportation for people and industries
Impacts on the Environment

Third Floor & Rotating Exhibits

Steve Cryan's Model Train Show
The Eagles of Essex
Water/Ways: A Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition
(opening June 3, 2023)